

Websites We Recommend

History for Kids | Grades K-5

<https://kids.usa.gov/history/index.shtml>

Explore the states, discover your state's history, today in history. What famous event happened today? And much more...

History Teacher

<http://www.historyteacher.net/>

An impressive, award-winning site from a New York high school teacher. Features many research links and curriculum resources for Global Studies, U.S. AP History, US European History, and American History and Government. Also has quizzes, news links, and more.

African American Mosaic

<http://www.loc.gov/exhibits/african/intro.html>

A Library of Congress resource guide for the study of black history & culture. Includes reproductions of original documents, personal stories, and ex-slave narratives. Part of the Library of Congress online exhibitions collections.

Distinguished Women of Past and Present

<http://www.distinguishedwomen.com/>

These are women who were writers, educators, scientists, heads of state, politicians, civil rights crusaders, artists, entertainers, and others. Search for biographies of distinguished women by name or by field.

Smithsonian Education

<http://www.smithsonianeducation.org/educators/index.html>

The site is divided simply into three main categories: Educators, Families, and Students. The Educators section is keyword searchable and features lesson plans — many pertaining to history. The Students section features an interactive “Secrets of the Smithsonian” that teaches about the special collections at the Smithsonian.